

NRG Zone - System Schematic -20

Note:

The patented principle of the NRG Zone manifold isolates the lowest temperature water returning from zones and directs it back to condensing boilers to promote maximum condensation.

At the same time it allows any unused heat from the boilers to have a direct bypass back to the Solid Fuel appliance to minimise condensation.

In this way each boiler's efficiency is uniquely maximised with a positive affect on both running costs and heat-up time.

