

It is possible to pipe circuits that Rise upwards from the NRGZone behind the manifold as it travels up but the loop below the manifold on Both the Flow & Return must drop 400mm down before it turns back up.

In that situation a Non Return Valve is required on the circuit to prevent inadvertent circulation rising to the area above.

